LOCATION

MSHS...
...the greenhouse...
...the gym...
...industrial arts...
...the infinite halls and

... the infinite halls and classrooms
WHERE IT ALL HAPPENS
"What's the buzz, tell me,
WHAT'S HAPPENIN'?"
Here, there and everywhere
... on the football field...
... under the lights...
Into the field of education
The wandering waifs, groping in the darkness...
"The ink is black, the page
is white.

is white,
Together we learn to read and write,"
Hum-drum of the classroom

The echoing silence of the halls. Scratch, scratch, scratch— The board fills up with notes As students gain by "Sleep-learning," EXCUSES!!!!

EXCUSES!!!!
Putting on a show for everyone to see
Such HAMS!!!
Wait..........
Seriousness pervades
these happy-go-lucky entities
With "It's up to YOU in '72!"
V-O-T-E!!!
Each is an individual

Each is an individual

To each his own---"On Location."
1973 at MSHS and

YOU are there!!!

LIMELIGHTS

Everyone is enveloped in the limelights of the events.

Queens, glowing with radiant beauty, Reigning with splendor over Homecoming subjects.

Football fighters, boldly stepping forth,
To represent our school.

Basketball players, following the bouncing balls

To victory.

Track stars, racing ahead to take their places
In the limelights of the year.

Former Queen, Debbie Medley, crowns Rosemary Bass Miss Marion Senior High for 1972-1973.

The Miss Marion Senior High Court: Katherine Greer, Beverly Musser, Debbie Evans, and Sharon Albert.

Mr. Cox portrays Burt Parks as Cathy Reith takes center stage.

The Big Red Machine shifts into high gear

Mrs. Burton hunts for the new arrival in all the wrong places.

Baseball batters, reaching homeplate before the ball.
Another home run.
Moe's mighty matmen, wrestling
points from the other team.
Pro golfers driving for their rightful first place.
Academic scholars striving to make the scene.
But mainly each student is the life of MSHS.
They are the limelight.

The Scarlettes portray toy soldiers as they end their homecoming drill in salute,

Now, as we begin another exciting year. .

Teachers stumble in on Monday morning to face another year,

PREVIEW

Anticipation, excitement
The feeling we have for
A new school year.
The new look at our teachers,
Sizing up,
Making mental notes.
Band camp,
Hoping to create whimsical melodies
to set up our spirits.
Cheerleading practice,
To direct our emotion
Majorettes, to set our eyes aflame with their talent and beauty.

Finally-

Mr Winters and Kathy Groseclose peddle lunch tickets in the cafeteria.

The first day In ourselves and in other people. New acquaintances, Old ones freshened by a different outlook on things. We have many more premieres. Pep rally Vying for the magic wand of sheer loudness. College Career Night, A shaky peek into the future, For the Seniors, the ever-important step to life, living, To maturity So as summer vacations fade away, The visions, the good times, All slide back into the portals of books and homework. Whether this is the first of the first. . . the Freshman. . The first of the last. , .the Seniors.. We trudge on, ENCORES

It's hard to be modest when you're as great as I am.

Silence!

Tension mounts, butterflies frolic wildly-The night of nights has finally arrived-Hours and hours of unending practice Will they pay off?? Will we win this game? Will the play be a success?
Will "they" like the routine?
In only minutes, we will find out . . . .
KICK-OFF, JUMP BALL, ACT ONE!! There's nothing like that feeling of sad content ment

Knowing we've done our best and we're a success

The tears . . . are they tears of Happiness

Tears of desolation . . . ?
Both, for we experience both sides of the coin . . . .

"Pin the tail on the pinata."

The blur of the first ball game is remembered here.

Believe in us, trust in us.

Action, Movement, Planned precision Key notes in our year, our school, our life.
The football games with their bone-crushing plays, Yet so well engineered and perfectly timed. Pure pep. Students giving their last ounce of determination and voice, For one final spurt, Students giving their last whether it be, A goal, two points, a second or a spirit stick. Everyday schooling, Moving with fantastic swiftness between classes, Minds clicking like so many shutters, or whirring like a well-oiled camera.

Capturing today on film for a rerun at some future date.

Somebody is gonna get hurt on this play.

ROLL' EM

"The time has come,"
A quite overworked phrase, but also appropriate for this.
The stage is set, backdrops ready
Everything is in focus.
The actors in costume on stage
Whether street clothes or an athletic uniform,

It doesn't really matter. The bell rings or a clock starts ticking away quarters of time

A tip off,
A race for first place,
In the lunch line,
In the seconds of a timekeepers watch
Or the numbers of lights on a scoreboard.
The cameras of our memories whir

into action,

Roll 'em.

How come everybody loves school so much?

There must be a better way.

RETAKE

Looking back on shady visions
Things we'd rather forget
Than remember
Sad expressions of yesteryear
Concentrated feelings into one whole
Exhausting emotion
You pulled so hard-then
Disappointment walked in,
We tried to keep it away
But it didn't work
Disappointment hits
And everyone has it...
It's a contagious
Depression,

Seniors present an inside view of the Rich Valley Homecoming.

Jeff Scott and Kenny Parks may someday replace Huntley and Brinkley.

EFFECTS

The variety show
The bonfire
The game
Crowning of the Queen
Homecoming dance-"Big M Country"
But particularly at Homecoming
With the wild frolics and follies
Of Hurricane people
And the bonfire
To spark the flames of Competition.

"I could have reffed all night!"

The highlight of the night came when Teri Harvey was crowned Queen.

These girls are running for Homecoming Queen,

Squatty bodies invade MSHS.

The Soulettes jive on!

Big "M" Country ain't big enough for the two of us!

"Easy Lovin' . . . "

Fall comes to an end. Another special effect Is created
By "Reindeer Follies" Not members of the Capacabana Line But that was then, This is now. Tinseled hair Glitters The lights in sad But beautiful faces When a young man's fancy Turns That means spring is on the way And "Spring Love" Can't be far behind And charm, the lucky girl Awakens too soon Or too late, For either.

Ho, ho - don't worry about ME falling in!

The Prom

This was a prom the Seniors will always remember.

We danced until Santa Claus.

The King and Queen reigned happily.

Spotlight on the Big Five.

Smokey says, "Only you can prevent football fires."

"Come on Big Red; you can do it!"

Rain doesn't dampen our spirits!

Ah, this is the life!

These are OUR cheerleaders???

HAMS

Showing off again!
That little bit of ham
Coming through
"Butterflies are free, so are we. . ."
Immersed in centerstage
Every eye is turned
In your direction.
Hammin' it up!!!
For the first time
Shaky, frightened, and a willI-be-accepted attitude
For the last
Time. . .
Swinging pendulum
And Father Time grows bent
With age.

Manager or Cheerleader?

"I'm Hairy Harry, don't you know me no more?"

With a halftime show like this, who needs the band?

FOREIGN FILMS

Education peeping around corners... ... Disguised as interesting, informative, inspirational. . . Those Friday morning assemblies that are supposed to be a drag-Somehow, suddenly transformed into an hour of . . . . . . . . . A hush falls over the auditorium. . . All eyes turn toward the stage. . . For once, giving the speaker undivided attention that sets the atmosphere.

Another assembly on DRUGS!!...
But wait!! This time a better approach-

SCREEN TEST

Talent abounds
On the stage
In the hall
Everywhere
At MSHS
'73 is focused Through the eyes
Of the fretting players
Exhausting their last Hours
Of the final joys
Focusing '73
Through thousands of pairs of Eyes.

Line-up for MSHS Homecoming Court.

"The trouble with angels . . . "

High-stepping to "Run, Run, Run".

Bach - Beethoven - BARROW!!

Even the trees are dressed up around here!

These are the best-dressed Seniors of MSHS.

WARDROBE

Individuality finds yet another course Another way to express itself; Through the attire of those attending MSHS. The blue jean market Has to be booming If our school is any indication
Of what is being worn. Women's lib Strikes down to the jeans. Of course No winners in Women's Wear Daily But who's trying to be on The 10 Best-Dressed List? We just compete for The 10 Most-Washed-Out, Faded Worn Ragged And patched Blue Jeans. It's up to the individual.

Scholastic Scoops is not all work and no play.

Hey all you Hurricane fans, stand up and clap your hands!

Go, Red, GO!!!

A silent flick?? Not MSHS Searching everywhere for the best audio technicians

Finding them in the most unexpected places

In the bandroom, in the classroom, on the football field, in the gym Sounds of fun, Sounds of learning, Sounds of victory, Sounds of depression.

MSHS Scene 3 - Take 7. Lots of action and Lots of noise.

A voice asking for a friend, A voice praying for a victory,

A thousand responses offering their companionship.
A thousand "Go-Red Go's!" lending support.

Each technician acheiving perfection to produce a film like no other.

A '73 not only in Focus, But coming in loud and clear!

The Pep Band raises more spirit at the Variety Show

"Now coach, you know I'm always right!"

"Can you see my knees shaking?"

THE SCENES

"Lights, please!" A flicker. . . And the world is it. Some mysterious hand Waved a magic wand And all lands were lit. Or the backdrop Suddenly appears And rumors whisper Of how elves came In the night And-Poof! The work was done. To all those Behind the Scenes Who don't receive All of their rightful recognition To everyone Who "made this possible." The cliche is overworked But it's true Without those nameless many, Lots of happenings WOULDN'T have HAPPENED.

"Gloriana the Twelfth, where do you buy your crowns?"

"I've got you this time!"

"Scholastic Scoops co-producers prepare for another show."

Meatballs to be thrown or eaten.

Once again from the top.

Personally I like it.

French students illustrate the meaning of love.

SCENIC

Blooming colors Sprouting from the wall. "Greetings!" "Welcome to MSHS!" Picturesque reproductions Of a Michaelangelo idea. The cocked beret; A palette in the left hand; And daubs of paint On canvas and self; And the scene is complete. Les Artistes!!! As, they are the ones who bring A bit of culture And the finer things in life To MSHS. They are the carriers Of fine art That infiltrates The school, MSHS - a storehouse of future Michaelangelos.

Posters show us some of today's ideas.

DOCUMENTARY

Stop the confusion!
Listen to the world...
become involved.
Shed the stillness of an ado-

Shed the stillness of an adolescent and mutate into a concerned member of the family of man.

Care enough to campaign, to tax all energies for the candidate in whom you believe. . . Speak to an audience of 500

Speak to an audience of 500 pairs of scrutinizing eyes and tell for what you and your man stand. . .

Experience that high of victory when your man wins, or the agony of total defeat the agony of total defeat-Assume another identity of council member, mayor, secretary of Chamber of Commerce. . Do your part in local government. . . End the accusations of twisted

End the accusations of twisted meanings, unkept promises. Voice the opinion that counts--

YOURS!

For only a couple days in the --be involved--

Express your ideas and find out what's happening outside of Marion Senior High.. SURPRISED?!!!

Some win. Some lose.

STAND BY

Reach out and touch somebody's hand, Show them you care. Smile! Brighten someone's day. No matter how short or how tall, How big or how small... We are all equal. We share a common bond. Each is part of MSHS. Share and care, Don't overlook anyone because of unfamiliarity. Learn to know, and love all. Chat and laugh, Tell them you understand. Broaden your horizon. Communicate! One act of kindness or one word of praise. . . Say it! Mean what you say! Help others to strive for their goal. Please stand by. Your smile, your sense of caring, They make someone's day... WORTHWHILE.

"I've got an idea!"

Will somebody please stop the rain!

Ah, you did it!

"Are you sure this is the right amount?"

Please, Can't you wait one minute!

What's in there?

Put your money where your mouth is!

"What did you say?"

The cheerleaders get together to discuss the game.

Can't ya squeeze in just one more yard?

"Teri, can you play with me?"

Everyone knows that the best time to sleep is during class!

TAKE

Endless term papers. Games cheered for Myriads of papers to keep in line. Clubs to attend. Grades to bolster Words on words, pages on pages. Numbers float without meaning in front of you. Pencils become part of your hand. SLOW DOWN! Take a little nap in that English Class. Close those bloodshot eyes for a while. Rest the cramped hand That wrote that whole rough draft Last night. Forget just a little of that homework and Take it easy. Make it up some other time. Pull up a chair, sit for a while After a gruelling physical education class. Slump down in your desk a little! Read a Magazine in study hall. Eat lunch slowly for a change.

Let your pen cool off. TAKE FIVE!

This is hardly the time for the sand man to be pestering Danny Slemp.

The rain in Spain falls mainly on J. Arthur.

Aha! So there you are!

COMMAND PERFORMANCE

That perfect assembly...
The unforgettable Senior Play...
Who is responsible for all this work?
Somewhere, in a seemingly apathetic world, a special group of Reds coming shining through.
A band of do-gooders that care
for ole MSHS.
Without praise, those students serve
An integral part of school life,
Performing without credits
Or recognition.
A standing ovation is due as they complete their command performance,
For they make us Number 1.

Coach Harkins tells it like it is.

What was it really like?

"Now that's five hamburgers, six orders of french fries, and . . . "

"Teri, don't go to sleep at a time like this!!

Checkmate!

Jonithan Blevins, a man of many talents.

Students plan for Black History Week.

Greetings Life is not all that awful. Flowering friendships and New relations with people That show you really care Don't let life in the big City get you down. Friendships are the most important part of life
What is life without
FRIENDS And what are friends for If not to help one another Mutual helpfulness It takes two to make a Friendship work. Both sides
One for the other;
"Thanks to you it's working!"

Skilled art students share their talents in teaching Junior High students.

Cheerleading has no restrictions as to age and size.

Wow, that's some follipop.

CUT!

NO CONCRETE JUNGLE HERE Life without suppression Is so painfully beautiful. No fencing in by unopened Doors. The Big Building--the new wing With so many-where, where To put them all. . . Big MSHS has a personality All its own, Bustle, boisterous, bragging. Pervaded with silence When there are none. No one left For a while And the cycle starts again With the dawning of a new day Shiny reflections from the gym Floor. So new, so important Adding a lot of prestige to Cheers echoed Silence was not disappointed Both sat Side by Side In one place Oxymoronic. Green leaves nosing Towards the air The sun. LIFE. . . In the greenhouse Nurture each plant Let not one die But build on With the shop From foundation to Finished product The maze winds along Corridors and classrooms Gym lobby lockers Earth and evergreen Board and building. To match wits with each one Concluding with MSHS A pendulum swings back and forth Between Pits of despair And Number Nine Clouds; There's still a lot of those In the sky. . . . And the final shutter clicks . . . . . And the last camera Grinds to an agonizing

Halt . . . CUT!

Susan Tate - Secretary, Mark Thomas - Vice President, Jo Burkett - Treasurer

Finally reaching our goal, our pinnacle of success After many years of struggle.

We arrived on the first day of school, the set for our performances,

Different somehow, more mature, more aware of our sense of being, Most of all with a common goal and a strong bond between us.

The hectic schedule of filming was soon begun, however. Beauty pageants

Homecoming, the finale to our wondrous football life at MSHS.

Then the senior trip

Anticipations to build

Dreams to reach

Heritage to reach and to touch, conquer, and even hold in your hands,

A far  $\mbox{cry}$  from the  $\mbox{dry}$  words on some page

But first the all important percentage of the senior class going Begging,

Crawling on bent knees to a stubborn person,

Even a little physical persuasion never did any harm.

The blockheads - lizards, microbes, and embryologists.

Then as the filming draws to a rapid close, Life flashes much too quickly before our eyes, And you just pray you could slow the whole process down, At least shoot some scenes for a second time. Before you know, the long arduous hours of practice have materialized into a polished performance, the Senior Play. The gay, lively sound effects form the cast party to the Junior -Senior prom, fade into the nothingness of happy memories. And the trip to Washington, for a bit of location acting, ends All too soon with tired bodies, but temperaments whetted to the city lif With many future plans for careers here are brought a step closer. Finally the event we have been Dreading Waiting for Trying to put off Hoping it would hurry and get here Then coming and going

As a once in a lifetime event, The true premieres of our adulthood

With all this being a part of "The Last Picture Show".

"VANISHING POINT"

The end must come

As it always does.

The Junior year also must end.

In defeat and desolation for some.

In jubilant victory for others,

So as we plod along, life rolls quickly by.

Candy sales come and are finally phased out as phrases like, "Money or candy in by Monday or else" echo from crazed homeroom teachers

Who would rather strangle Betty Benson than eat.

College Career night comes.

We are grown up,

Scary, frightening but often advantageous to be older.

Our whole future is planned in our mind's eye,

Decisions are made on our choice of University,

Maybe a trade school or a junior college.

We live, and eventually learn as the clocks of school tick classes into eternity.

The Junior Play.

Hours of work, mistakes are made, lines float in limbo in people's heads And players' bodies revolt from exhaustion

The applause only to give a single moment of ecstasy

Now lies silent on the ears of "Father Time."

We still watch the second hands keeping busy as

The Beta Club beacons us to join its ranks, and we concede as

Beta Beggars, hoping to be looked upon mercifully.

Rings come,

Symbols of achievement,

Beacons urging us on saying we can make it...

It arrives...the finale...the END...

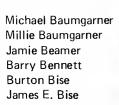

We reflect, but mostly our gaze turns toward next

September, when our life as a non-senior reaches

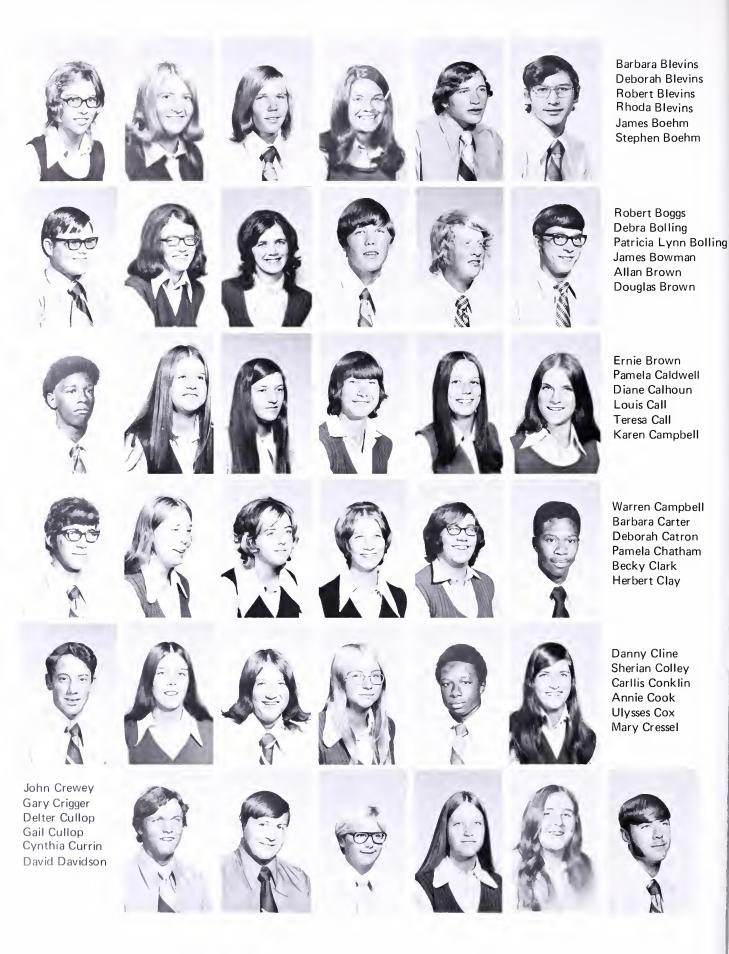

The end of the line, its getting off place, its Vanishing Point.

"IN SEARCH OF THE CASTAWAYS"

Lost amid the confusion..... Torn between two causes..... Oscillating back and forth..... Between the Freshmen And the upperclassmen: The "Almost Seniors." Do we have The authority to do this? Will it look Undignified? Or will we be crushed by uppers For overstepping our boundaries? Sometimes it is clear that We wear the laurels. Could it be true That we have won a pep rally? Our assembly... Oh, yes, it is a battle That we win Valour and principles Are our reasons We will make it someday Listen, everyone! Sometimes we are lost, Alone, And forgotten ... We are groping And everyone is In Search of the Castaways.

"THE IMPOSSIBLE YEARS"

When no one believes you could possibly be a Freshman Why, you're much too short!
You couldn't be more than 12, well, maybe 14- and that's stretching it!
Trampled, suppressed Freshmen
But great things come in small packages
Look at all those luscious Pep Rallies we win
"We're little but we're loud"
Besides everyone was a Freshman once upon a time Right?
And without those "impossible" years,
The Sophomores wouldn't be sophomores
The Juniors wouldn't be Juniors

I've had more comfortable seats in my life!

More than a story consultant, a guidance counselor, a disciplinarian,

Above and beyond the call of duty,

The teachers of MSHS spend long hours that go uncompensated.

They must divide every minute carefully between home and school.

But MSHS always ends up with most of the precious minutes,

Solving problems, whether they be in a math book or in a student's mind.

Sponsoring clubs, making future leaders, teachers, farmers, homemakers out of undeserving kids.

Planning schedules, working on each individual with motherly concern.

Teaching youth -- developing not only the mind but the entire person.

Administrator, secretary, counselor, Coach, sponsor, musician, Dietician, Librarian, teacher-all are synonyms for, Friend.

Thus 1973 comes into Focus, with ultimate efforts contributed by every Faculty member!

In order that students may better understand MSHS, the Swamp Fox

Jack Murphy plans the assembly for installation of officers.

"Jesus Christ Superstar"

What's Jesus Christ Superstar all about? Is it really living up to its publicity? These are just a sample of the questions that were brought up at a Gamma Delta Tri-Hi-Y panel discussion. Films and guest speakers from the outside world offer other inspirational programs. Functioning to promote high Christian standards of living, Junior and Senior girls become involved in their community through service projects. By conducting a street drive for crippled children and working the telephones at the Radio Station during the Heart O' Rama, the club serves the community and helps bring good relations between MSHS and people of the area. Sponsoring a War orphan, adopting a large needy family at Christmas, and co-sponsoring the Thanksgiving Assembly and Christmas Dance are other annual activities of the Gamma Delta. This year the club is very proud to boast Sherree Rogers as Speaker of the House, along with sending four other girls to the Model General Assembly.

"Ten Commandments"

Anyone care for some spaghetti?? Freshmen and sophomore girls have had their fill of noodles and sauce as they slave in the hot cafeteria just to make their annual Spaghetti Supper a success. By sponsoring the supper and selling lollypops, the club is able to finance its many service projects. They include the Christmas party for underprivileged children, the Thanksgiving baskets for needy families, and sending a delegate to Model General Assembly. The Jr. Tri-Hi-Y attempts to develop Christian character by having speakers, films, and programs of a religious nature.

Joy is reflected in the faces of all, as Santa leads them in song.

"Ben Hur"

When was the last time you gave yourself to someone?? The Boys Sr. Hi-Y at MSHS gives of itself all year round. This Christian club for underclassmen renders its services in the fall to park cars for the Big Red Football games. At Thanksgiving these guys give in the form of much-needed food baskets. During the Yule season the club buys presents and hosts a party at Southwestern State Hospital for a ward of male patients. Just by talking with these men, the boys bring some cheer into an otherwise drab life. A sock hop early in the year helps the Boys Sr. Y to operate smoothly and to carry out its many activities.

Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y members prepare baskets for a needy family.

The Hi-Y members and Santa bring joy to the SWSH patients.

"Barabus"

Freshman and Sophomore boys can be members of the Junior Hi-Y, promoting Christian leadership among the young men in our school community. They prepare themselves for future problems and other obstacles that face them in life, with a Christian attitude. They work with the other Hi-Y clubs to bridge the gap between Christianity and the trials of school, home, and community life.

Sooner or later the boys always find the food.

Stuntwomen

"Women's Lib" hits paydirt at MSHS. Girls' athletics strike another blow for the feminists movement in a non-violent constructive way. Sophomore, Junior, and Senior girls become an integral part of the male-dominated athletic prowess, and, showing equal skill, they are members of the Girls' Athletic Association. They manage to maintain their feminity throughout, much to the amazement of some, who see only their contention on the court or field.

"Frenzy"

"The Glorious Redwasher", to coin a phrase, amply describes the participants from the Pep Club who "redwash" the spirit-igniting posters. Decorating the goal posts at home football games and being the largest club at MSHS adds to its distinction, as Hurricane Spirit Raiser!

Let's see now, that's two for me and one for you...

Future Directors

The campus of ETSU has never been the same since it was invaded by the members of the FTA. During the year, the club visits several different campuses in the area. This enables the junior and senior members to better formulate their plans for the future. To finance these excursions, the FTA sells confetti and holds bake sales. College representatives attend meetings and speak to club members. The faculty arranges for FTA members to function as student teachers and thus prepare for their future vocation.

Soliloquy

State Winners! The Forensic Club, having sponsored three State Forensic Meet competitors, burst with pride at the newfound honor. Not only do they orate, debate, and read, they co-sponsor the One-Act District Play Festival. Each year, a member is rewarded as being the Outstanding Forensic Club member. To finance their activities, they hold a Book Fair and a bake sale, the proceeds from which are given to the Robert Porterfield Memorial Fund.

Comedy or tragedy? The two masks of the theater are symbols of the Marion Senior High Chapter of the International Thespian Society. Membership is by invitation only, according to participation in historic activities. Their main projects include raising money for the Robert Porterfield Memorial Fund and sponsoring the District One-Act Play Festival. Members also attend various professional and college productions, workshops, and play festivals. An Outstanding Thespian receives recognition each year.

Now you listen to me....!

Galloping Gourmets

Let's see now, there's three feet in a yard and..

"Ah, my little chickadee... Here we have a tasty morsel..."
No doubt, it came from the culinary culprits in the kitchen of the Future Homemakers of America. They perform wifely duties in the art of cuisine and sewing, practicing for the future. Trying out their artful dodgings on unsuspecting volunteers(?) who claim each mouthful to be an unsurpassed delicacy, they feel free to enter the real world of practiced duties.

Green Acres

The guys that "dig the ground the most" are the Future Farmers of America. "...How does your garden grow??" Unquestionably, they leave out the silver bells and cockle-shells, having learned more advanced methods in farming and animal husbandry. Agricultural aspects of our society reveal their knowledge of down-to-earth projects. In a day when most food appears out of tin cans and freezer bags, freshness and out-of-the-garden fruits of their labor comes as a surprise that, that's where the tin and frozen food came from in the beginning.

"How to Succeed in Business . . . "

Future Business Leaders of America have a motto of, "How to Succeed in Business..." and they really try. Students enrolled in the commercial curriculum are eligible for membership in FBLA. Serving others in various capacities, they provide a party for mentally retarded children and give a "coffee" for District I teachers. MSHS shows pride in these future leaders in "the world of economy".

Set Builders

Manual dexterity and pride in high quality craftsmanship spur the members of the Industrial Arts Club on to their many achievements. The members of this club come from all of the "shop" programs which include General Shop, Mechanical Drawing and Power Mechanics. This group of students makes possible many of our activities and spend long hours working on their assigned tasks. They construct the great backdrops that set the whole scene for our school play, both Junior and Senior. Also the special sounds and lighting effects that add dimension to these performances have their origin in the Industrial Arts Club. They also answer the call when unique requests are made of them for props for the Beauty Pageants, Varsity Shows and special assemblies. All of these add that extra professional touch to our accomplishments that would not be, except for the Industrial Arts Club.

Up the Down Staircase

People working to better themselves, with dreams, with hopes of brighter futures than ever seemed possible, striving to meet these new challenges and conquer them. This is the pushing force behind the Upward Bound Club. Comprised of students who look ahead into light, instead of backwards into darkness, this organization provides a vital cog in the ever powerful machine of our school. Their goal to be reached this year was a trip to the Upward Bound program at V.P.I. They also had special activities which include, slides of their last year's projects and talks given by other Upward Bound members. They financially aided these with a soc hop that was enjoyable to all and truly gave themselves 100% to their cause.

Please Don't Eat the Daisies

The Horticulture Club is a relatively new club on the MSHS scene, yet is has already made a place for itself in our school by helping with flower arrangements on special occasions, selling potted plants at Christmas, and having an open house in the spring so parents can come and look around, not to mention selling vegetable plants and flowers. This club also helps the local garden clubs and civic organizations, with their floral problems and has guest speakers from time to time. These range from florists to experts in the business of growing flowers. And of course many films and lectures are given about all the possibilities of choosing this exciting and rapidly expanding field as one's permanent career.

Fledglings, snow bunnies, and the down-to-earth (?) skiers slide into membership slopes of the Ski Club. Their trips to Beech Mountain add to the excitement of being a Ski Club member. Every once in a while, they have a "snow dance" to beg Old Man Winter for snow and raise money as well. Warming their members are new "Ski Club" jackets for the icy weather that they hope faces them on their ski trips.

"Quiet on the Set"

Actions really do speak louder than words with the members of this club - where the club meets, they have to. These students perform a vital job and render much wanted service to the students and teachers alike at MSHS. They handle and keep constant watch on the ever increasing flow of newspapers and magazines pouring into the school, supervise the checking out of books and, to the dismay of many, collect the fines on overdue books from forgetful people. The members also maintain the vast number of volumes, the essence of this organization, and also repair films for the audio-visual portion of high school study. All this does not go unrewarded however as they compete with other regional libraries for honors, and sell candy to aid them in the financial sense.

Busily discussing the old joke if pi is square (d) of pi is round, these members pick apart the latest advanced ideas in mathematics. The newest club at MSHS, they have a startling number of charter members. They show interest in all related fields of mathematics and try to advance the idea that math is not all work and no play. Dull is the word they strive to keep from lurking in the annals of students' minds.

The Greening of America

Have YOU ever seen a NUDE parametium being MOLESTED by two electrodes? The members of the Science Club have, and they will attest to the fact (though they like to keep some secrets under wraps). Bacteriology and astronomy provide subjects for Science Club activities and trips. The club sponsors the Science Fair which mesmerizes the public every March. The members in conjunction with the Rotary Club, award prizes for the most outstanding projects that range from the ever-present chemistry to the uncommon classes of Behavioral and Physical Sciences.

With the latest moves in ecology, the Ecology Club is one of the most relevant groups in our school society. They refuse to believe that all Americans love the trash and filth that "color" the landscape, as well as the nooks and crannies in the school. KEEP AMERICA BEAUTIFUL ... KEEP YOURSELF BEAUTIFUL ... do your part.

Emergency!

"Give blood!" Jr. Red Cross members echoed the motto around the school while they fished for donors from every possible angle. In co-operation with local community and town clubs, they brought donor contributions in numbers when the Bloodmobile visited our town. They realize the grave danger of losing our blood quota and not having transfusions immediately. Trying to strike this realization to others, they made the effort by asking for donors around school.

Musical Production

Our school has its own version of The Scarlet Letter. Our Letter is "M" in the "Scarlet M Singers", the advanced choir at MSHS. This group, as well as the rest of the chorus, participates in All-Region Chorus, All-State Chorus, and the Choral Festival of District 7.

They provide assemblies at Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter, and, as a culmination of the year's activities, a Spring Concert. "The World's Finest Candy" comes from the choral members, as well as the "Best Football Programs". "Scarlet M Singers" are chosen selectively through an audition and a written test.

Let's try it again - from the top!

"The next voice you hear . . ."

The appointed hour is 7:00 p.m. ... It is now 6:59 p.m. and the S.S. Force has not arrived. The Directors pace across the studio floor. Just as the Producer reaches the point of ultimate desperation, the whole Scholastic Scoops Force bounces innocently into WMEV studio with the freshly written copy. Thus, Scholastic Scoops is presented every Monday night to air the latest news and happenings of MSHS. The staff works hard as they are judged by the Virginia High School League Publications Contests. They are financed by sponsoring a soc-hop.

The Scholastic Scoops staff works diligently to prepare for the next show.

No, Bobby, this is the way you do it.

"Mrs. Pugh, we think we've got it."

"... Alias the Daily Planet"

"Hear ye! Hear ye! The Marionette announces ..." Promptly and accurately, the reports come to students and faculty at MSHS from the school newspaper, the Marionette. To support their activities, they sell subscriptions and ads, and sponsor soc-hops. They take up a UNICEF collection to help needy foreign children and decorate a Christmas tree of their very own. Issued to a deserving staff member, is the International Quill and Scroll Award, each year.

"Phil, would you show me again?"

Can I have a life-saver, John?

You've gotta be kidding!

"Uh huh, you're doing fine."

Sherree Rogers says, "You can call me after five!"

Editing Room

Ever wonder where the LOST AND FOUND Department exists at MSHS?? In Room 141, the Annual Room, where almost everything and everyone are lost, rather than found. Deadlines and lost pictures or copy provide a need for comic relief from many tear-stained pages. Lay-outs sometimes simply will not work, no matter how the straight line bends. Nothing brings people closer than a tragedy, which happens frequently to HURRICANE staff members. Time expires quickly as they rush to get the yearbook out before school ends.

Photographers, Linda Clawson, Stuart Jones, Chuck Overbey, Lydia Swaha, and Scott Williams, rush to get pictures in!

The business staff, Steve Forrest, Danny Cline, David Smith, Kim Coe, Rick Simons, and Mike Aker, take time out from their busy??? schedule for a pose.

Planning meetings takes up much of the staff's time.

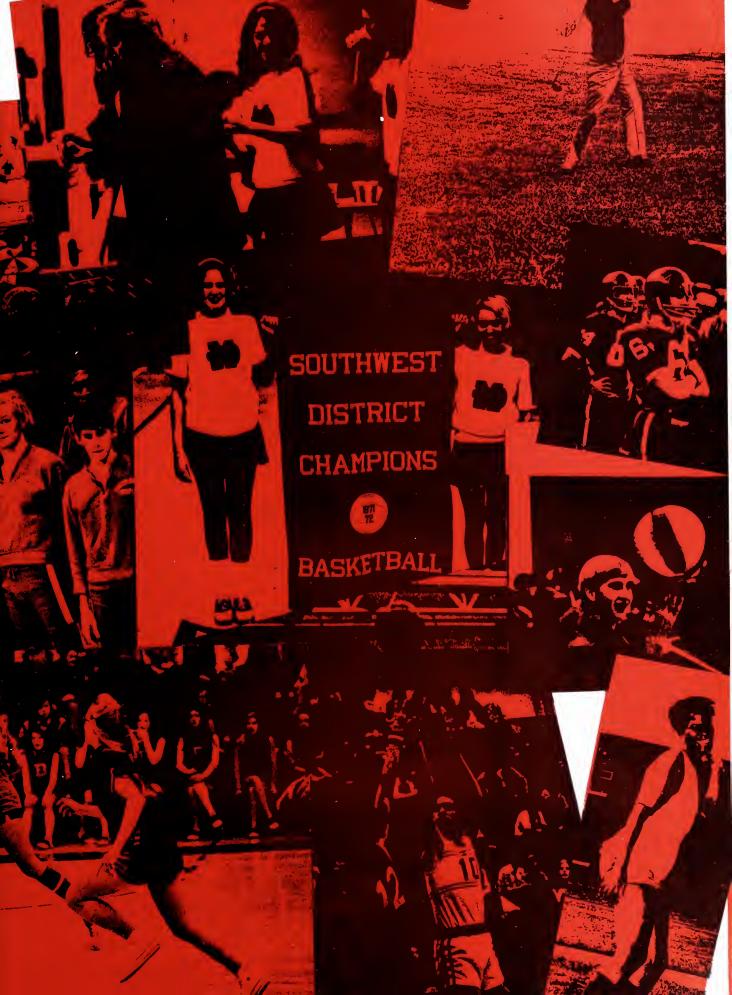

Sometimes it takes more than one to make it come out right.

Putting it all down on paper.

Varsity Football

Plays to be perfected, patterns to be run time and time again ... limbs ache. Minds boggle at weariness and breathing becomes the only true test of strength. Then THE FIRST VICTORY! Another follows it closely as visions of glory, and greatness dance in imaginations. Coaches think this is it, then suddenly, the wins get harder and fewer, mistakes are made. "Loyal" fans desert and newspapers blab false accusations. Then you say enough is enough and "Get Fired Up" is the phrase that echoes in your ears. It starts out as a tiny spark, and then grows into a roaring inferno, to finally become a win, in grand style, a 20-0 score. The season closes -- all too soon -- heads look back on losses, on WINS, the playing itself.

I'll go peacefully!

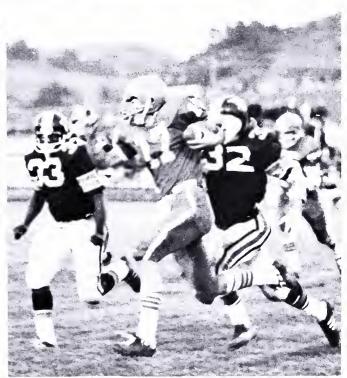

Going over the lines.

Just one more yard, Big Red, just one!

Men's room to the right.

Can't you catch me?

Rehearsing the script.

J. V. Football

Their game attendance might be shocking, their plays not too fancy or so well executed as the varsity, and their playing on a smaller scale in general. But a common train of thought flows through all of their minds, to win one for the Big Red! And that is what they do, along with a lot of hard work, even harder playing, and of course some fun. So who cares if a little razzle-dazzle is lacking. They more than make up for it in sheer determination.

Cross Country Track

The delicate crunching sound of leaves underfoot, the smell of black earth, and the sight of shining dew on the patchwork of autumn leaves still clinging desperately to the trees. These are all part of a cross-country man's world, whether at a meet, or on a practice run in the early morning hours on some lonely path. All the members of this team go for perfection, whether it is a new record in competition, a longer distance each day in their workouts, or to put the finishing touches on their running style that gave them the great record they had this year.

Varsity Basketball

Big Red Roundballers win again and all of the time spent for four years is definitely worth it! Almost going to State is certainly a grand honor. In the finals of the Regional Tournament, Marion fightingly goes against Radford and the Sparks' ratings declare Marion "sixth in the state," after losing the finals. All of the team are extremely proud of their achievements, as they should be.

Girls' Varsity Basketball

For four long, excruciatingly painful, tiring, "death valley" years, the girls worked for the Varsity team and the Senior year. Always pushing and squeezing for more from the members are Coach Duncan and Manager Madonna Echols. They deserve all the credit they can get.

J. V. Girls' Basketball

Being an almost-Varsity person means a lot to the J.V. Girls' Varsity Basketball team. One of their main goals is winning, but there lurks in the back of their minds, the idea that someday they will become a Girls' Varsity Basketball team member.

Freshman Basketball

Young? Yes, in a sense they are. Inexperienced? Sure, they are new faces in the sports scene. Struggling, for some recognition of their talent. Play after play, basket after basket, they gain poise, form and, yes, that all valuable court time. So with every shot they make, and every dribble of the ball on the hardwood floor, they come closer to realizing their dream of the big time, of the Varsity Squad.

Who's scared? Not me!

Easy shot for Guyn Combs.

Talking it over,

Did you see that, ref?

I've got it!

David, Bobby, and Gary practice for the meets.

Chasing through the halls of our school, dashing madly around corners and up stairs, while winter blows around outside. Is it madness? No, not at all, it is only the indoor track team, as they temporarily turn our corridors into practice areas and defy the elements to get at them. Their success in this is witnessed by the fantastic record they racked up this season, and by their all out effort to win by traveling to Blacksburg and Lexington on weeknights to take on the competitors.

Smith finishes.

Runyon ready to leave.

Hunter lands in the sand pit!

Cracking in the home runs! Baseballers leave the other teams behind and bat their ways out of paper bags and anything else that looks like a baseball diamond.

Baseball

First Row: Joe Ellis, Eddie Guy, Mike Blevins, Ben Wagner, Carl Heath, Carter Thomas, Mike Eaton, Keith Dunnagan. Second Row: John David Crewey, Joe Ferraro, Bill Goetzinger, Tommy Wilson, Norman Barker, Sam Parsons, Alan Linkous, Bradley Moore. Third Row: Glen Robinson, Mgr., Johnny Wilson, Tom Sexton, Jay McDonald, Coach Alvin Crowder, Jeff Anderson, Mike Bevins, Wayne Cullop, Jim Overbay, Joe Murray, Mgr.

A Hurricane waits for the pitch as the umpire gives the signals.

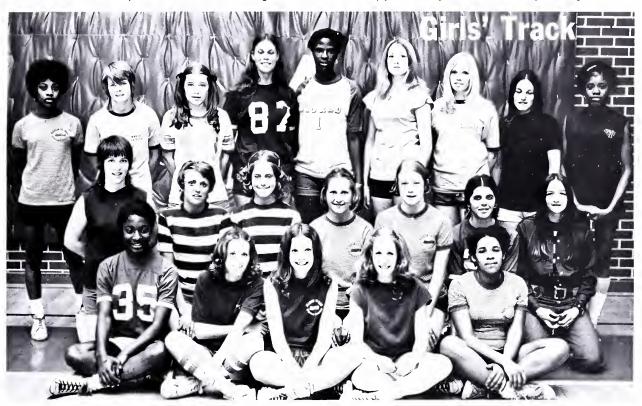

Another run for the Scarlet Hurricane.

Moore grins with satisfaction from the dugout.

Running through the hurdles, they face the obstacles with all the stamina it requires. Girls on the track team exhort every ounce of their effort through to the end. The lucky part is - they have fun while they're doing it.

Up, Up, and Away. Look out! Here I come!

Wrestling

Muscles bulge, sinews stretch to their utmost limits, and bones seem to bend at the great amount of pressure put in them, as the four seconds tick away and a "pin" is called. This is wrestling, and this is the goal of every member of the squad in our school, the ultimate victory, so to speak. To achieve this, however, these people must go through 98 degree workouts, after losing 5 pounds in an afternoon starve themselves, and in short, give their minds and bodies to this most grueling of activities.

Outdoor Track

Front Row: Steve Copeland, Phillip Goodman, Larry Jennings, Edgar Johnson, Randy Tiller, Bobby Runyon, Alan Blevins, Mike Williams. Second Row: Pat Jackson, Mark Atwell, Dale Tiller, Lewis Foreman, Joe Ferraro, Robert Noonan, Rob Porter, Third Row: Steve McGhee, Greg Lawrence, Herbert Clay, Jack Murphy, Martin Stewart, Chris Hayton, Mike Orr. Fourth Row: Tommy Wilson, Mike Roberts, Jay McDonald, David Vicars, Jimmy Parks, John DeHart. Fifth Row: Danny Slemp, Buddy Farris, Howard Rowland, David McGhee, Johnny Wilson, Ulysses Cox. Sixth Row: Mike Bivens, Stewart Gill, Mark McCloud, Ken Bauman, Mike Bauman, David Smith, Gary Hart. Back Row: Coach Ball, Kim Harvey, Bobby Hunter, Kyle Rhodes, Dwight Hester, Gregg Steele, Scott Morrell, Robbie Fry, Mark Alexander, Coach Brockman.

Shot put, pole vault, long jump, and of course long hours of leg power are all part of the outdoor track scene. These boys brave rain, mud, and often snow in their early season practice. Practice that drags on forever as they beat themselves into shape mentally and physically for their many tough adversaries. So with the Scarlet colors flying brilliantly on their backs, they lay the "other" team down in grand style.

"They can leap tall buildings in a single bound!"

Who putt this golf ball in the sand? That is just one of the woes facing the MSHS Golf Team. Their raw edges want smoothing, but then, practice makes perfect. Golf Kneeling: Coach Larry Sawyers and Coach Charlie Harkins. Back: Billy Buchanan, Arthur Davis, Gregg Farrell, Tracy Untiedt, Barry Bennett, Carson Holbrook, Steve Forrest.

Just a little bit further!

Let's see... This is going to be a tough one!

Scarlettes

If you've ever been to a Marion basketball game, you might have noticed a group of pretty girls clad in red and white uniforms, who perform at half-time. These girls are known as the Scarlettes. This group of young, energetic girls practice about as hard as any other team in school. Their practice season lasts from June until April — eleven months!! During the summer months, the new group of Scarlettes get organized and go to Drill Team Camp at Ball State University in Indiana. After returning home they practice all their newly learned routinues and prepare for the oncoming school year. This year the Scarlettes performed in the Homecoming Parade, Homecoming game at half-time, and the Christmas parade, not to mention the home basketball games. Also, they were invited to perform at the district game at John Battle and they performed at Virginia Tech for the Region IV AA Tournament. MSHS is proud of these girls in red and white and thinks they have done a great job!

Varsity Cheerleaders

"We got the fever, we're hot, we can't be stopped!" Are these the sounds of mad gladiators with the flu? No, it's our very own Varsity Cheerleaders, creators of pep, noise, and cupcakes. These ten girls are the ever-faithful backers of the Big Red Machine. Without a doubt, the cheerleaders are the busiest members of M.S.H.S., selling jerseys, smashing cars, and having soc hops. These pep pushers attended camp at U.T. where they earned every honor in sight including the spirit stick! Without the cheerleaders, M.S.H.S. would certainly be a dull place.

Making friends with the competition.

Showing some of our best.

Debbie doing her job.

Cheering during a tense moment.

J. V. Cheerleaders

Dancing cheerleaders?? Of course. This year the J.V. Cheerleaders not only stimulate the Big Red Spirit, but grace the pep rallies with vivacious dance routines. Just as their Varsity counterparts, these Hurricane gals attend a long and vigorous week of camp. They return full of pep, new chants and cheers, and ready to make hundreds of cupcakes. A losing first half, a breathtaking tie, a jubilant one-point win ... Those J.V. Boosters are always there!!

Front: Cindy Sharp, Kathy Jones. Middle: Lyn Thompson, Susan Ratcliffe, Shelly Sharp. Back: Sharon Albert, Karen Willis, Donna Murphy.

J.V. beauties cheering on.

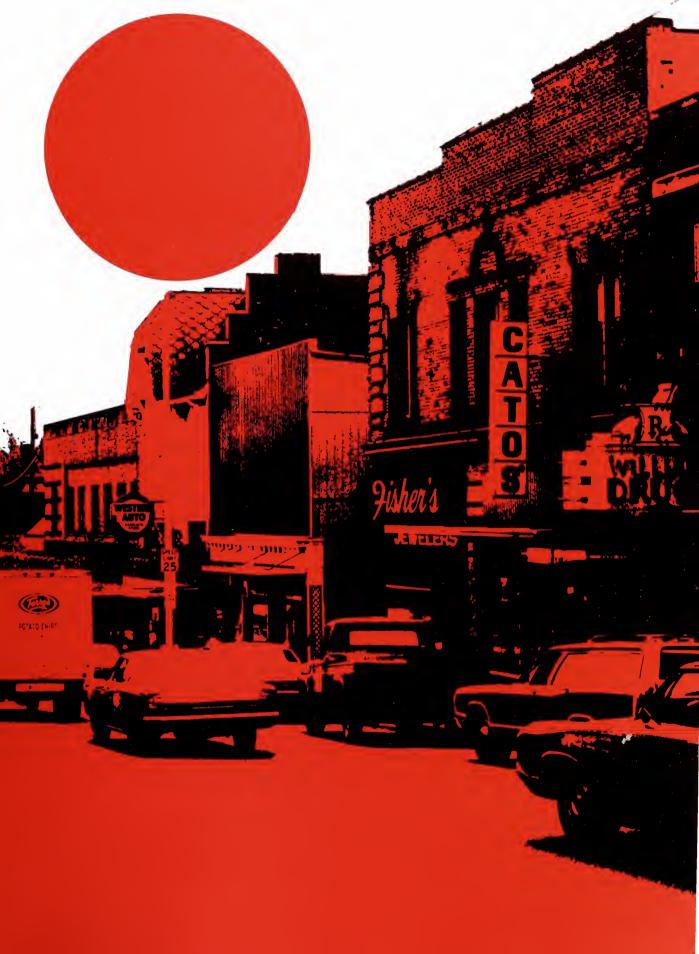

A victory smile!

J.V. Cheerleaders know what it's all about - they show it here in the homecoming parade.
